

BLACK AND WHITE

Vol. 2

Phoenix, Oregon January 30, 1923

No. 7

SENIOR PLAY

The Seniors are looking over plays in order to find one that is suitable to be given by the class. They will give the play earlier this year than usual, so it will leave them more time to prepare for the Commencement exercises at the end of school.

The play will be given by the Seniors alone this year and the Junior Class will give a play later in the spring.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR BOY SCOUTS.

Some of the younger boys of the grade school are preparing a play, under the direction of Mr. Milam, which will be given at the entertainment for the benefit of the Boy Scouts.

The program will probably be given some time this week; the exact date will be announced later.

There will be a quartet by some of the men, and attraction of the program will be a lecture by Prof. Vining, of Ashland.

This will be an exceptional treat for the people of Phoenix, as Mr. Vining has very fine ability as a public speaker.

The community is urged to make plans for attending the program.

JUNIORS GIVE PARTY.

The high school and faculty enjoyed a very unique "Smile" Party given by the Junior Class last Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McClain.

Each member of the High School was met at the door by one of the Juniors and required to smile before entering. There were different posters pinned on the wall with sayings like "Smile and the world smiles with you", etc. as reminders to the guests that they must smile.

The party first played "Vink'um" and afterwards many other enjoyable games were indulged in, such as forfeits; passing the ring; throwing the handkerchief; etc. until about 10:30 when partners were drawn for supper, and refreshments were served by the Junior Hostess. The supper consisted of sandwiches, potato salad, pickles, cake, and cocoa. The hostesses were very generous and if anyone left the in a state of hunger it was certainly not the fault of the Juniors.

After supper games were played again for some time, and then everybody gathered around the piano and joined in the singing of popular songs.

The party broke up at about twelve o'clock. Everyone had a jolly time and the party certainly lived up to its name.

January 30, 1923

BIG WINGS

PUBLISHED BY THE PHOENIX HI SCHOOL

EDITOR-----R. BOLZ.
ASST. EDITOR----H. von der HELLEN.
SOCIAL EDITOR-----M. WARD.
ILLUSTRATOR-----M. B. LE.
TYPIST-----F. WATKINS.

CLASS REPORTERS

Senior-----Tom Caster.
Junior-----Mildred Hughes.
Sophomore-----Everett Martin.
Freshman-----Ruth Short.

Official publication of the Associated students of the Phoenix High School. Published twice a month during the school year.

Prices are 50¢ a year or 5¢ a copy. Ads are 25¢ for 2½ in. and 10¢ an inch for all over that or two dollars a page.

THE GREATER PHOENIX

All the houses of Phoenix are now occupied. It has now come to a time when new houses must be built.

A great many of the old fences have been torn down and new ones built. Buildings and surroundings have been fixed up generally.

The streets are being graded and gravelled and most of the ruts and chuckholes have disappeared. This work has been going on for some time but is now nearing completion.

Why not grow larger and better? This is a good farming community and has a good school. Merchandise is as cheap or cheaper here than other places. It is near Medford so one does not have to go far to get something that he could not get here.

It is a good residence town and living is cheaper here. Some business men of Medford have property and live here and others are following. Phoenix is destined to become a larger residence town.

IMAGINE IF YOU CAN

Mar. Art with her lessons prepared.
Jimmie getting to school on time.
The class reporters sending in news items.
Winnie not using the staff typewriter.
Joseph getting a good grade in deportment.
The bookkeeping class getting their books to balance.
The physics class working every problem.
The paper out on time.
The Seniors wearing their little green caps.
Everyone studying during the noon hour.
Leo getting to class on time.

Harold--When are you going to pay your nickel?
Andrew--When you are alone.
H--Well, I'm alone now.
A--No you're not, I'm with you.

Miss Whitman--Harold, what is the plural of man?
Harold--men
Miss W--And the plural of child?
Harold--Twins

They had seated themselves at the table.
Andrew--Will you have a little shrimp?
Elsie--Dear me, this is so sudden.

Miss Whitman--That's the trouble Joseph?
Joseph--Someone put water in my seat.
Miss W--Tell you don't have to sit there do you?
Joseph--No, but I already sat down.

The trouble with too many of the young men of to-day is that their wish-bone is where their backbone ought to be.

January 30, 1923

JUNIOR PERSONALS

The Junior girls may be recognized by the caps they wear. They are really and truly very pretty. Of red, white, and blue with "Crown Flour" and "Crown Cereal" written on the bands.

Last Friday night Margaret visited Gladys Barton, one of our former class mates.

Is Dorothea's system in typewriting the hunt and peck?

John tells us that lately he has been doing very little of interest except escorting a young lady and milking the cows.

Evidently Mildred does not enjoy hearing Dorothea read "Uncle Tom's Cabin" during noon hour for she hastily excused herself.

Jeannette is working very diligently at a rough neck sweater. We hope that she gets it finished real soon.

Emma has been quite sick and has missed several days of school.

Marjory and Elsie grieve very much because of the departure of Ned.

"Now Winnie, you must say, 'hy' to every question any one asked you" says Mr. Milam in Civics.

Margaret Purple sweater is still a mystery. We wonder if it will go out of existence-----at Phoenix as quickly as it came in?

Elsie has been very busy lately getting in citations, etc. out for the Junior Class party of Smiles.

What would happen if Margaret had the minutes for a class meeting?

Several of the Junior girls went to the show "Above All Law", when you see a far away look on their faces don't be surprised for they are probably only trying to take off a tire or cut telephone wires or something like the Yogi did.

On a Soph

It has been noted that a certain Sophomore boy has red eyes as from crying. Of late we have noted that he takes every opportunity to wink at the Junior girls. Can this be the cause? However, the Junior Class can hardly blame him.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomore Class seems to be hoodwinked this year. Earlier in the year Viola Blankinship the class treasurer left school to enter matrimonial life. Clifford Blankinship was then elected to that office, but he has also quit school.

Ned Weld, the class president, is now attending high school in Medford, so new officers had to be elected for the class. They are as follows:

President-----Everett Martin.
Vice-president-----Andrew Stevens.
Sect.- Treasurer-----Goldie Brown.

FIRE ESCAPE ON SCHOOL

At last the Phoenix School is the proud possessor of a fire escape. The danger has been realized from fire starting while the pupils are up in the auditorium or during entertainments. It will thus be a safeguard for the community as well as the school.

The fire escape arrived about a month ago it has been reposing on the ground until recently. It is now up in place ready for business.

BASKET BALL GAME AT JACKSONVILLE

The Phoenix Basket Ball team went to Jacksonville Friday night for a scheduled game. The game was not a fast one, as only a few baskets were made by either side. The ball was fumbled quite a lot and thus no good results were accomplished.

Jacksonville won the game by one point; the score at the end was 10-11.

o will play Jacksonville a return game on February 13, and hope to give them a good game.

Lincoln's birthday will be observed by the school this year.

Hard licks mean good luck.

January 20, 1923

SPECIAL

Larger Ivory Soap Flakes 11¢
Seedless Raisins 14¢
Cocoa 12¢
Hominy Grits 8¢

Phoenix Mercantile Company

Corner of Pacific Highway and 2d. St.

THE

CONFECTIONERY

LIKES YOUR

FATRONA E

Pacific Highway and 1st. Streets

Drop an unkind word; or careless--in a minute it is gone,
And there's half a hundred ripples circling on, and on, and on;
They keep spreading, spreading, spreading from the center as they go,
And there ain't no way to stop them once you've started them to flow.

Drop an unkind word, or careless--in a minute you forget,
But there's little waves a-flowing, and there's ripples circling yet;
And perhaps in some sad heart a mighty wave of tears you've down stirred,
And disturbed a life that's happy, when you dropped that unkind word.

Drop a word of cheer and kindness--just a flash, and it is gone,
But there's half a hundred ripples circling on, and on, and on,
Bearing hope, and joy, and comfort, on each splashing dashing
Till you wouldn't believe the volume of the one kind word you gave.

Drop a word of cheer and kindness--in a minute you forget,
But there's gladness still a-circling; and there's joy
a-swelling yet;
And you've rolled a wave of comfort, whose sweet music can be heard

Over miles and miles of water, just by dropping a kind word.

Mr. Milam received a letter from Rev. J. C. Austin of Linfield College at McMinnville, who visited the High School recently and gave a lecture to the students. He ended the letter with these words, "I want to thank you again for your kindness to me while in Phoenix, and to again express my Appreciation of your moral contribution to the young life of your school."